THE CASE WILL BE APPEALED

being owned and controlled by the national government, has aroused the auomobilists of the city of Washington. & Fulton, will to-morrow appear before

Attorney Leckie, of the firm of Leckie Mayor John W. Garrett, of Glen Echo as counsel for Col. M. A. Winter, who was recently arrested by Constable Collins, of that municipality, charged with violation of the regulations concerning automobiles. In the event of an unfavorable decision from the mayor, which is confidently expected, the case will be appealed to the Circuit Court of Montgomery County, Md.

The case is an important one, as a favorable decision from the latter source means the return of hundreds of dollars which the automobilists allege has been wrongfully exacted from them by the Glen Echo authorities. They will also be saved from further attention from C. P. Collins, a constable of Glen Echo, who, it is alleged, has made numerous arrests, frequently displaying his revolver in the demand that the automobilists accompany him to the mayor's office for trial. It is alleged that in frequent instances the formality of a trip to the office of the mayor is dispensed with, the constable accepting a collateral of 5 or $10, as the case may be.

To Fight Vigorously. In response to an inquiry concerning the situation, Attorney Leckie said yes-

We informed him we were then on the way to the office of the mayor to see that official in regard to the errest of Colonel Winter the previous Sunday. Collins refused to listen and finally enforced his demand by drawing a revolver. We were not afraid of being shot, but as we were on the way to see the mayor, we accompanied him to his office, where our personal bonds were

Terry Was Arrested.

'Another instance of unwarranted au thority was in the case of Edward Terry, president of the Columbia Transfer Company, of this city. Mr. Terry informed to-day that on last Sunday he was held up by Collins, who demanded $10 for an alleged violation of the automobile

As he was not aware that he was transgressing the laws of Glen Echo, Mr. Terry entered into an argument with the constable, whereupon he was informed that if he did not immediately produce the sum demanded, he would be assessed an additional ten for contempt of court, "This occurred on the public highway. In order to avoid any trouble, Mr. Terry paid the money and returned to Wash

Colonel Winter said yesterday that he. as well as other automobilists, has de-termined to vigorously prosecute their cases to a finish, as well as all other other criminal and civil cases that may come out of the alleged conduct of the town marshal.

Special to The Washington Herald. Rockville, Md., Oct. 16.—Deputy Sheriff Collins, the recently appointed mounted policeman for the Conduit Road, Seventh treet and Rockville and Georgetown pikes, of this county, was before Justice of the Peace Robertson here to-day, and swore out warrants against several persons charging them with violation of the law regulating the speed of automobiles in this county. Two of the persons, W. F. Hitt and John Endicott, appeared this morning before Justice Robertson and pleaded guilty. A minimum for the persons of the person pleaded guilty. A minimum fine was im

This order was issued yesterday by Post-master General Cortelyou, and it is stated there were many reasons for this seemingly very strict interdictment. Post-masters everywhere have been pestered for the past years by agents, promoters, manufacturers, and inventors to give their "machine," "invention," or other "latest" improvement a trial "just to see how it works." The whole thing has attained the proportions of a serious nuisance and was liable to lead to complications, and the Postmaster General has seen fit to put stop to the proceedings.
